

Northwest Arctic Leadership Team

LEADERSHIP BIOGRAPHIES

Donald G. Sheldon

Chairman of the Board, NANA Regional Corporation

Donald G. Sheldon chairs the NANA Regional Corporation board of directors and has been a director since 1989.

Sheldon also serves as director of NANA Development Corporation (NDC) and chairs the Akmaq, LLC and Five Rivers Services, LLC board of directors. Sheldon serves on the boards of directors of other NDC subsidiaries and affiliates, including: Pegasus Aviation Services, LLC; Kisaq, LLC; Akima, LLC; Evergreen Films, Inc.; NANA Construction, LLC; NANA Management Services, LLC; Nullagvik Hotel, Inc.; Nullagvik, LLC; WHPacific, Inc.

Sheldon is a self-employed small business owner and brings his unique perspective and considerable experience to NANA as well as to the boards of Alaska Christian College and the Alaska Federation of Natives (AFN).

Marie Kasarṅnaaluk Greene

President/CEO, NANA Regional Corporation

Marie Kasarṅnaaluk Greene is an Iñupiaq from the Native Village of Deering, Alaska. She brings a wealth of cultural insight along with many years of senior level leadership experience to her role as president and chief executive officer of NANA Regional Corporation, Inc. (NANA).

Greene works to cultivate the corporation's cultural and economic resources, collaborating with other regional organizations to improve the quality of life for NANA shareholders. She works closely with the NANA board of directors and NANA region communities; serving on the boards of regional and statewide organizations including: OTZ Telephone Cooperative; the Advisory Committee for Wells Fargo Bank; and the Alaska Federation of Natives. She is co-chair of the Northwest Arctic Workforce Development and Higher Education Consortium and the Northwest Arctic Leadership Team (NWALT). Greene is an appointed member of the Alaska Redistricting Board, responsible for reapportioning the state house and senate districts following the 2010 U.S. Census. She holds a master's degree in Rural Development.